

news from poland

Last President-in-exile

19.04.2010 14:22

 A A A  |  |  |  |

Ryszard Kaczorowski

The death of Ryszard Kaczorowski in the plane crash at Smolensk is a loss for Poles around the world.

Presented by Slawek Szefs in cooperation with Radio Orla in London

Modest and dignified. Devoted with all heart to the Polish postwar emigre community. He inspired hope among compatriots for a Homeland free of communist rule.

In appreciation of his service and merit, Ryszard Kaczorowski has been laid to rest in the pantheon of Great Poles at the Temple of Divine Providence in Warsaw.

ARCHIVE

- Last 21 Smolensk disaster victims return to Poland
- "Eco Nobel" for Poland
- News 14:00 CET - Polish Radio - 23.04.2010
- The Museum of Polish History in tribute to the victims of the air crash
- Krakow after the funeral ceremony
- News 14:00 CET - Polish Radio - 22.04.2010
- Poles to elect a new president on 20 June
- Volcanic ash - disaster in the air, boom for rail
- Poland's armed forces lost head?
- News 14:00 CET - Polish Radio - 21.04.2010

more »
Add new comment